c. Sunday, August 4, 1991 at la Arena Coliseo in Mexico City, Distrito Federal, Mexico

Initials

These matches are explained by a battle royal. The first two ladies eliminated would team against the next two in a tag match; then the next three would team up against the next three in a six-man; and the next three would tag up against the three survivors in a six-man.

1. Lady Star (Ruda/fourth out) and la Coralilla (Tecnica/2nd) defeated Lady Apache (T/1st) and la Quira (R/3rd) two falls to zero.
2. Janeth (T/5th out), Tania la Guerrerilla (R/10th), and la Pantera Surena (R/9th) defeated la Venus (R/8th), la Super Estrella (T/7th), and Selene (T/6th) two falls to one.
3. Zuleyma (R/15th), Lola "Dinamita Gonzales (T/WINNER), and la Sirenita (T/14th) defeated Carla Ivonne (T/13th), la Diabolica (R/12th), and Maria del Angel (R/11th) two falls to one.

Semifinal

Ciclon Ramirez, el Pantera II, and la Aguila Solitaria defeated Javier "el Gusano" Llanes, la Bestia Salvaje, and el Espectro de Ultratumba two falls to one in a very good non-title match (wish I had seen this one).

- 1: Ramirez pinned Ultratumba with a quebradora.
- 2: Ultratumba pinned Pantera with a cruceta.
- 3: Ramirez pinned Salvaje with a huracan rana.

Main Event

Fuerza Guerrera, Emilio Charles junior, and el Egipcio defeated CHavo Guerrero, Mando Guerrero, and la Mano Negra two falls to one.

- 1: All three rudos pinned CHavo with a triple clothesline.
- 2: el Egipcio was counted out against la Mano Negra.
- 3: el Egipcio pinned la Mano Negra after a foul which happened while the referees' backs were turned.

3. News and Notes

1. el Misterioso says in an interview that he is a native American, born in Los Angeles of American parents, and still lives in L. A. (which we knew because of the clip showing him working out with his Reserve unit during the war).
2. el Guerrero Negro is from Monclova, Coahuila, Mexico
3. Javier Cruz debuted in 1969 (he says) and is from Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico
4. Referee el Mini-Davis is actually Javier LLanda Ceballos, is from Jalapa, Veracruz, and has been refereeing in the southeast of Mexico for 18 months.
5. The match from Arena Coliseo that did not air on 7/19 was The Blue Panther's EMLL "official" debut (he had come in three days earlier). It generated the largest amount of money thrown into la Arena Coliseo ring to celebrate a good match in many years. The results were that los Hermanos Guerrero (CHavo, Mando, and Eddy) defeated The Blue Panther, Ulises, and la Bestia Salvaje two falls to one. Dona Vicky was very happy about this.
